

NOTICE

No. 1537 dt. 26/4/19

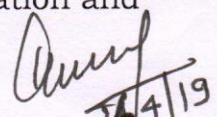

In order to promote free and fair practices in examinations based on the Examination rule 21.5 point No.16, the Council has decided to match answer books of examinees to find out mass malpractices, if any, so that punishment shall be awarded by the Examination committee as per rules. The following norms shall be followed in deciding the institutions to be considered for matching process:

1. Top five institutions based on the % of pass before publication of result branch wise.
2. Institutions against whom complains received by the Council relating to any unfair means adopted during conduct of examinations.
3. Institutions whose participation in evaluation is less than 30% of the answer books used by them.
4. Any other matter the council thinks fit for matching.
