Sub: Functioning of Quality Cell at SCTE&VT to improve the academic standard of institutes.

Sir,

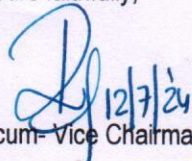

In inviting a reference to the subject cited above, I am to say that a Quality Cell shall function at SCTE&VT to effectively analyse and monitor academic activities in all institutions in order to improve the quality of academics. The said Cell shall be managed by Quality Council of India, New Delhi (An autonomous body under Ministry of Commerce, Govt. of India).

The portal developed by QCI shall be active shortly. Institutes will be required to upload data in online mode on different parameters. After analyzing data and also sample physical verification, the gap shall be identified and measure shall be taken for improvement. The purpose is to support the institution in identifying the gap and helping them to improve. The good practices of institutes shall be presented to others for replication. Best performing student/teacher/Institute shall be identified by evaluation for recognition.

An awareness programme shall be organized next week virtually, after which the training on the use of portal shall be provided by Quality Cell.

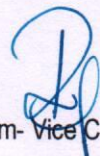

You are therefore requested to participate and extend required co-operation in the matter to make the project successful.

Yours faithfully,

DTE&T-cum-Vice Chairman
